We're always looking to meet new neighbors!

Whether you are new to the neighborhood or lived here for years, we'd like to introduce you to our association with reasons why so many neighbors belong.

The Bonnabel Civic Association:

1. Is a dynamic team of people that work together on important issues affecting our homes and families.
2. Provides venues to get to know your neighbors and build a strong community.
3. Is active in improving our community.
4. Listens to you to identify neighborhood issues & concerns to determine appropriate actions.
5. Leverages our membership to present a powerful voice on important issues.
6. Takes ideas and puts them into action.
7. Is where we can meet like-minded people and forge new friendships.
8. Provides quarterly newsletters and regular emails to keep us informed on neighborhood developments, improvements, and projects.
9. Holds regular meetings where we hear from & interact with our council, JPSO, legislators, parish department heads, & other experts.
10. Regularly invites our council representatives to present current initiatives.
11. Organizes events to keep our neighborhoods safe and protect the interests of our neighborhoods.
12. Mobilizes neighborhood assistance.
